

Publication: Afternoon Despatch

Date: Friday, 30th January, 2015

Edition: Mumbai

Six teams from Mumbai's schools and colleges were judged 'the best' for the Happy India Project with ideas that focused on key issues such like education, health, conservation, security, environment protection and financial inclusion. Seen in the picture are students during the announcement on Thursday.