Yes, death benefits are also tax-free under Section 10(10) D of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

13. What happens in case a member chooses to enter the scheme during the plan year?

The members will be allowed to join the scheme only during a specific period in the plan year and the coverage will be for a fixed period of one year with a defined start and end date. The premium rate is fixed for the given period. In case, a member wishes to enter the scheme during the plan year, late enrolment for prospective cover will be possible till three months from the commencement of the scheme. Those joining subsequently would need to pay full annual premium for prospective cover, with submission of self-certification of good health with the discretion of Insurer.

14. What are your options if you (Master Policyholder) miss paying your premiums?

We provide you, the Master Policyholder, a grace period of 30 days for all premiums falling due for renewal after one year from date of commencement or last renewal. You need to pay the Premiums before the end of the grace period to ensure that your members continue enjoying the benefits of the Plan/Cover. If due premium is not paid within the grace period then cover ceases and the plan/membership terminates.

15. Can you cancel your Plan?

Yes, you can cancel your Plan if you disagree with any of the terms and conditions within the first 15 days (free look period) of the receipt of your plan document. You can return the plan to us, while stating your reasons for the same.

16. You are prohibited from accepting rebate in any form:

Prohibition of Rebate: Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time

- No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectus or tables of the insurer.
- Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission in connection with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to be acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of this sub-section if at the time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bonafide insurance agent employed by the insurer.
- Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be liable for a penalty which may extend to ten lakh rupees.

21. What happens in the case of submission of information which is false or incorrect

- Misrepresentation/Fraudulent Disclosures: shall be governed as per Section 45 of Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time. A Leaflet containing the provisions of Section 45 is enclosed as an Annexure for reference.

- No policy of life insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after the expiry of three years from the date of the policy, i.e., from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later.
- A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival, of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground of fraud:
- Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision is based.
- Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), no insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer:
- Provided that in case of fraud, the onus of disproving lies upon the beneficiaries, in case the policyholder is not alive.
- A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to the expectancy of the life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document on the basis of which the policy was issued or revived or rider issued:

- Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based:
- Provided further that in case of repudiation of the policy on the ground of misstatement or suppression of a material fact, and not on the ground of fraud, the premiums collected on the policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured within a period of ninety days from the date of such repudiation.
- Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.

About IndiaFirst Life Insurance

We've had Bank of Baroda, Andhra Bank (now, Union Bank of India) and Legal & General as our founding partners. After journeying with us through our years of growth, Legal & General sold its stake in Feb 2019 to Carmel Point Investments India Private Limited, a body corporate incorporated under the laws of Mauritius and owned by private equity funds managed by Warburg Pincus LLC. This is the first deal wherein a private equity fund has taken an interest in a life insurance company. Our shareholding pattern of the company now stands at: Bank of Baroda - 44.00%, Union Bank of India - 30.00%, and Carmel Point Investments India Private Limited - 26.00%.
