10. Your options if you miss paying premiums

Is there a grace period for missed premiums?

We provide you a grace period of 30 days in case of six monthly or yearly premium mode and 15 days in case of monthly premium mode. This period starts from the due date of each premium payment. All your plan benefits continue during this grace period.

If you do not pay your premiums before the end of the grace period, your life cover ceases and your plan will lapse.

What are your options to revive the plan?

You can revive your plan within a specified period, if you have been unable to pay premiums due to constraints by -

- Simply paying the pending premium amount
- Begin the regular payment of premiums

Are there any constraints to revive your plan?

Yes. You can revive your plan as long as you do it within two years from the due date of the first unpaid premium but before the maturity date. The revival is subject to satisfactory medical and financial requirements raised by the company.

11. Can you surrender your plan?

Yes. You have the flexibility to surrender your plan.

Regular premium	No surrender value payable
Single premium	Surrender value is payable only if you surrender the plan any time after the third plan year and before the end of the plan term. It is calculated as- $40\% \times \text{Premium paid} \times \left[\frac{\text{Unexpired term}^*}{\text{Total term}} \right]$

*Unexpired term will be calculated as on the date of lapse or, in case the cover is continuing, the date of surrender.

12. Tax benefits under this plan

Currently you are eligible for the below mentioned tax benefits. These are subject to change from time to time. However, you are advised to consult your tax consultant.

Yes. You can cancel your plan if you disagree with any of the terms and conditions within the first 15 days (free-look period) of receipt of your plan document. You can return the plan document to us, while stating your specific objection. We will return your premium as follows -

Premium paid

- Less: i. Premium for the period you were covered under the plan
- ii. Charges towards medical examination, if any
- iii. Stamp duty charges

14. Do you get any loan benefits under your plan?

No. We will not be able to give any loans under your plan.

15. What happens in case the life assured commits suicide?

If the life assured commits suicide within 12 months from the date of inception of the plan or from date of reinstatement, no death benefit will be payable under the plan except for single premium mode wherein surrender value (if any) will be paid. This is irrespective of whether the life assured was sane or insane at the time of death.

16. You are prohibited from accepting rebate in any form:

Prohibition of Rebate: Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938 states-

- No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the Policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a Policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer
- Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees

17. What happens in the case of submission of information which is false or incorrect?

Indisputability Clause: Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938 states-

- No policy of Life Insurance shall, after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected, be called in question by an Insurer on the ground that a statement made in the proposal for insurance or any report of a medical officer or referee or friend of the Insurer or in any other document leading to the issue of the Policy, was inaccurate or false, unless the insurer shows such statement was on material matter or suppressed facts which it was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the policy holder and that the policy holder knew at the time of making it that the statement was false or that it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose. Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms and conditions of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal
